

Reclaim your identity and then learn to fight like Jesus to protect it.

IDENTITY. It's a word we hear a lot about these days from so many different perspectives, but what about God's perspective? Does it matter? Yes, it absolutely does matter. When you know your identity, you are positioned to know and fulfill your destiny. This makes the devil very uneasy. Want to know what else makes him uneasy? Embracing your identity as a daughter of God and learning to fight like Jesus to protect it.
